

Charlie Kaufman is making an impact in the world of food allergy bullying by reviewing and promoting a soon to be released book written by nationally renowned psychologists in collaboration with Northeast Ohio Food Allergy Network (NEOFAN).

NEOFAN's mission is to provide support, education, research and advocacy for families with food allergies throughout Northeast Ohio.

In lieu of gifts, please consider making a contribution to support NEOFAN.

NEOFAN is a 501(c)(3) and all donations are tax deductible.

To donate, click the link below (or use the donate button on the right side of the homepage):

<https://www.paypal.com/donate/Charlie>

After donating, Charlie will receive an in honor acknowledgment. Please email info@neofan.org with the name(s) of those who have made the contribution.

A letter will automatically be emailed for tax purposes. If you prefer to receive a hard copy of the letter, please provide a mailing address in the email.

Email info@neofan.org or call 216-956-6666 with questions.

Thank you,

Abigail Glick, MD
Director
Northeast Ohio Food Allergy Network (NEOFAN)
abby@neofan.org
216-956-6666
www.neofan.org